On motion of Mr. Pickell,

The remainder of the second section was stricken out.

Mr. Roberts submitted the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, The commissioners appointed to settle the affairs of the Eastern Shore Rail Road Company, did, in their general award, decide that there was due Ann Smith and others, adult heirs of Philip J. Smith, the sum of one hundred and fifty-two dollars; and did also adjudge and award to the four minor heirs of the said Philip J. Smith the further sum of seven hundred and four dollars; and further, the said commissioners did forward to each claimant to whom awards were made, a certificate of such award. And whereas, the certificates for the two awards above named have either never been received by the claimants above named, or if received, have been lost—therefore,

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Commissioner of Loans be authorised and directed to issue certificates of stock of the State of Maryland to James M. Smith, the executor of Philip Smith, or to his attorney, upon the production of the exemplification of his letters of administration on the estate of Philip Smith, deceased, from the orphans court of Cecil county, for whatever sum may appear due upon the list returned by the commissioners to settle up the affairs of the Eastern Shore Rail Road, to Ann Smith and others, adult heirs of Philip J. Smith, and also a certificate to the four minor heirs of Philip J. Smith, allowing whatever interest may be due said claimants.
